

Why save seeds?

- Helps promote and preserve biodiversity
- Seeds are climate ready
- Grow healthy food
- Helps feed pollinators
- Preserves local seeds and plant history
- Fun and Free!

What seeds to save?

- Open-Pollinated
- Heirlooms
- NOT hybrid

When to save seeds?

- After blooms or pods are completely mature and dry while still on plant.
- After fruit is mature and fully ripe.

Contact NEWMGA for more information:
seedsaver@
newmastergardeners.org

Why save seeds?

- Helps promote and preserve biodiversity
- Seeds are climate ready
- Grow healthy food
- Helps feed pollinators
- Preserves local seeds and plant history
- Fun and Free!

What seeds to save?

- Open-Pollinated
- Heirlooms
- NOT hybrid

When to save seeds?

- After blooms or pods are completely mature and dry while still on plant.
- After fruit is mature and fully ripe.

Contact NEWMGA for more information:
seedsaver@
newmastergardeners.org

Why save seeds?

- Helps promote and preserve biodiversity
- Seeds are climate ready
- Grow healthy food
- Helps feed pollinators
- Preserves local seeds and plant history
- Fun and Free!

What seeds to save?

- Open-Pollinated
- Heirlooms
- NOT hybrid

When to save seeds?

- After blooms or pods are completely mature and dry while still on plant.
- After fruit is mature and fully ripe.

Contact NEWMGA for more information:
seedsaver@
newmastergardeners.org